

Law Office of Rebeca Torres, PC

January 2013

It has been about five (5) years since we first began collaborating our skills anytime a client of mine has been charged or accused of a criminal act and the client maintaining his/her innocence.

The last case we worked on together was April 2012. Client's wife ran an at-home daycare. One six (6) year old child began to act out and the child's mother took her to the hospital alleging inappropriate touching by my client.

A criminal investigation began and detective summoned client to submit to a polygraph or risk being charged.

You traveled to Pennsylvania the next morning conducted the exam in which resulted no deception indicated. Those results were shared with the detective, the client was not charged, and his wife's daycare license remained intact.

Additionally, I mimic strongly Attorney Salvatore Paszynsky sentiments. You are the best. I keep your number on the fast dial.
